

Universal Pictorial BLISSYMBOLS for the international

TRAVELLER

Man + Wheel + Ground = Traveller

A Sample Tourist Folder

from "100 Symbol Elements to overcome Babel"

SEMANTOGRAPHY - BLISSYMBOLICS

by C. K. Bliss, B.Sc. (see back page)

BLISSYMBOLS can be read

(like $1 + 2 = 3$) in any language - without Translation
as shown above in the symbol for TRAVELLER

BLISSYMBOLS can be typed on a normal-sized IBM Typewriter (which carries the alphabet too) for any typing needed (see below)

BLISSYMBOLS can be cabled

by Facsimile Telegram without any telegraphic coding,
decoding, and without Translation into any language

BLISSYMBOLS can be printed for Tourist guidebooks, tickets, reservations, tour programs, folders, menucards, receipts, invoices, passports, visas, customs, railways, buses, ships, airplanes, stations, terminals, harbours, airports, hotels, motels, restaurants, bars, theatres, cinemas, ball games, races, conventions, congresses, fairs, olympic games, exhibitions, giftshops, stores, repairs service stations, garages, roadwarnings, first aid, ambulances, hospitals, etc. etc.

BLISSYMBOLS in public places must (as a reasonable condition) always carry the native words underneath (as shown below), in order to acquaint everyone with the symbol combinations.

Read the symbols line by line not haphazardly here or there, and see how quickly you can combine them to new meanings. Children did it in their first lesson.

used already all over the World

NUMBERS AND MATHEMATICAL SIGNS

29 pictorial Blissymbols

Some of these symbols are already combinations, as for instance: a HOUSE can be symbolised by ROOF over GROUND, a SHIP by VESSEL over WATER, etc., etc. But it is simpler to use an auxiliary Outline Symbol for HOUSE, SHIP and other meanings, as shown throughout this folder.

By putting the Action symbol Λ on top of the symbols above, we indicate the Action (verb) of these pictured things, as to see, to smell, to speak, to hear, to touch. With this, children wrote whole sentences in their first lesson.

The higher mind above the individual mind (skull outline) indicates God, parents, teachers, who instill CONSCIENCE in us.

Lisez les symboles ligne par ligne et non pas à tort et à travers. Il vous sera si facile de les combiner pour donner d'innombrables nouvelles significations. Des enfants l'ont fait dès leur première leçon.

How to use the "line letter"

Alphabetical letters are formed by lines. By adding one horizontal line to F we get the different sound E. In much the same way we can use the "Line Letter" for the forming of hundreds of pictorial symbols as shown below:

The symbols for OPEN and CLOSED can be used for banks, consulates, etc. together with symbols for time and days (see below).

Experiments with children conducted by Educators, have proved that children grasp these pictorial Blissymbols quicker than words. They can read new combinations they have never seen before, and they boldly and logically combine new meanings they need when writing to penfriends who speak other languages.

Why are these symbols so simple?

Because the line elements can be put on any typewriter by removing the capital letters, but leaving the small letters for names and ordinary correspondence. An IBM ball typewriter is even better.
